When I'm gone

Estate Plan

What is it?

Even the most organised amongst us have little pieces of information hidden away (or forgotten about) which seem trivial today but could become pivotal in years to come.

The aim of this booklet is to bring together much of this information and keep everything in one simple pack.

The When I'm gone Estate Plan is a handy little document designed to help you keep a record of the important things in life, making it easier for you and those who come next.

This works best when you take the time to go through everything (you only need to do this once) and write it all down.

Then, when things change, come back to the When I'm gone Estate Plan and scribble down anything important. Simple!

Then one day, your next of kin will have a simple booklet containing everything, making life much easier for them.

Note:

This is NOT a legal document and does not replace any wills or other documentation mentioned herein.

Contents

Personal details

This section will go through who you are, any spouse, partner or children you have, your closest friends and any lovely pets.

Contacts

Useful area for writing down things like your doctor, any employer details, tradespeople, utility numbers and any membership numbers.

Finances

An area for any pensions, bank accounts, life insurance policies or anything else financial.

Documents

A note on where you keep your will, any information about Powers of Attorney and your birth certificate.

Possessions

Information about your cars, valuables and your home.

We've created this booklet for you so you have an easy place to write everything down

- You don't have to fill it out - it's up to you whether you use it or not.
- You can pick and choose which sections you complete.
- Find a safe place to keep it, such as with your will, and let your family or close friends know about it.
- Your details will change over time so think about updating it once a year or when your circumstances change.

If you choose to complete this document, it is really important that you keep it in a secure place at all times as it will contain sensitive and confidential information.

A secure place may be a safe or a locked filing cabinet. Please do not leave it in an unsecure location.

Digital accounts

Digital assets - from photos and videos stored on line to social media accounts - can be just as important as your other possessions. But how will your family know what you've got? Having a list will remove the guesswork for them.

Social media accounts (eg Facebook, X, LinkedIn)
Email accounts
Online financial accounts
Online auction accounts (eg eBay, Gumtree)
Online file storage
Digital records: videos, photos, and other files
Music libraries & ebooks
Blogs & websites you own
Digital currency
Computer game characters
Online gambling accounts

Please don't write security information about your accounts such as passwords or PIN numbers in this document.

Some digital assets that you think of as belonging to you may not be yours to pass on. For example, digital music may only be licensed to you for use during your lifetime.

Funeral wishes

Thinking through and talking to your loved ones about how you'd like your funeral to be will take away a lot of worry and uncertainty for them. Writing down your wishes means they'll be reassured that they're doing what you would have wanted.

Things you might want to think about

- Funeral service - would you like one, what type and where?
- Who would you like to carry out the funeral service?
- Would you like an announcement to be made in a newspaper and if so, which one?
- If you're to be buried, where you'd like this to be (and details of any plot you've purchased).
- If you're to be cremated, where this should be and what you'd like to happen to your ashes.
- What music, prayers and readings you'd like.
- Would you like people to wear black or not?
- Who would you'd like to be invited?
- If there's anyone you'd particularly like to speak at your funeral.
- Would you want flowers or donations and if so, which charities should these go to?
- Where you'd like any post-funeral gathering to be.
- Would you like a memorial and what should it be?
